Academic Projects:

AI-Based Traffic Prediction System | [\[https://bit.ly/trafficApp\]](https://bit.ly/trafficApp)

- Designed an intelligent traffic management system to detect, classify, and prioritize vehicles in real time using YOLOv8 and RCNN models.
- Implemented object detection models (YOLOv8, RCNN) for real-time identification and prioritization of vehicles (ambulance, fire truck, etc.).
- Built REST APIs with Flask, and visualized results via React dashboard.
- Achieved 95% detection accuracy and simulated 30% congestion reduction
- Performed video processing and visualization with OpenCV and Streamlit, delivering frame-by-frame detection and alert visualization.
- Deployed prototype on Streamlit Cloud, ensuring real-time inference

Certification:

- Comprehensive Course on Selenium with Java – Covered core Selenium concepts, automation framework design, locators, waits, TestNG, and Maven integration (2025)
- Fraud Detection in Financial Payments – JPMorgan Chase & Co.
- Cybersecurity Analyst Job Simulation – TATA
